Description

- Removable panels allow the operator to control what cattle see in the cattle alley
- For easy storage, removable panels are bolted onto the alley sides when not in use
- Cradle-shaped and fully adjustable to accommodate animals of any size
- Sides are sheeted to the ground, eliminating foot traps
- Durable clips allow the cattle alley to connect with other Arrowquip products seamlessly
- Spring-load locking system on cam-slam latches for easy adjustment
- Top adjustment can be used to stop animals from rearing up
- Caulked flat sheeting on both sides of the Easy Flow Elite Alley to eliminate sheet metal rattling
- Nylon bushings over slam latch pins to reduce noise
- Panels bolt tightly together to eliminate pin rattling
- Lower bottom bar allows for safe entry and exit
- Both side panels drop down fully, allowing the handler to access the animal in case of emergency
- Safety latches on the side panels add security and control when adjusting, and ensure the sides will not drop down accidentally
